

THOMAS HARRISON.

FEBRUARY 29, 1840.

Read, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Mr. GIDDINGS, from the Committee of Claims, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee of Claims, to whom was committed the claim of Thomas Harrison, report :

That said claim was submitted to the consideration of the Committee of Claims at the 2d session of the 25th Congress, and an unfavorable report made thereon : vide Reports of said session, No. 1006.

The committee have again examined said claim, but find no cause for departing from the conclusions there arrived at by said committee. They therefore adopt said report, and recommend to the House, for adoption, the following resolution :

Resolved, That the memorialist is not entitled to relief.

Blair & Rives, printers.

THOMAS HARRISON

February 23, 1870.

Read and contained in a Committee of the House to report.

The Committee from the Committee of Claims made the following

REPORT:

The Committee of Claims, to whom was committed the case of Thomas Harrison, report:

That said claim was submitted to the consideration of the Committee of Claims at the 21 session of the 35th Congress and an unfavorable report made thereon; the report of said session, No. 1000.

The committee have again examined said claim, but find no cause for departing from the conclusions there arrived at by said committee. They therefore adopt said report and recommend to the House, for adoption, the following resolution:

Resolved, That the memorial is not entitled to relief.

Printed & bound by